Westly Comments on Death of Assemblyman Firebaugh

SACRAMENTO – California State Controller Steve Westly today made the following statement regarding the death of former State Assemblymember Marco Antonio Firebaugh:

“Anita and I offer our heartfelt condolences to the family of Marco Antonio Firebaugh. Marco was a committed public servant who voted his conscience, passionately represented his district of Los Angeles and gave working families a strong voice in Sacramento. I have no doubt that Marco would have continued to serve the people of California for many years to come. He will be deeply missed.”
